

CURRICULUM VITAE

Assistant Professor Charline Uhr, Dr., M.Sc.

E-Mail: chuhr@sam.sdu.dk

Personal Website: <https://sites.google.com/view/charline-uhr/>

CURRENT AND PREVIOUS POSITIONS

---

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 05/2021 – pres.                        | Assistant Professor at the Department of Business and Economics, University of Southern Denmark and Danish Finance Institute   |
| 10/2018 – 04/2021                      | Research Assistant at the chair for Personal Finance, Goethe University Frankfurt and Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE in Frankfurt   |
| 01/2020 – 04/2021                      | Consultant for the Pension Dashboard Project at the Deutsche Renten Information e.V. in cooperation with the Goethe university and 14 large companies from finance and technology. Aim of the project is to build a tool that allows all German citizens to get an overview of their future retirement savings. The project received funding by the European Union of appr. 1 Million Euros. |
| 06/2019 – 11/201901/2020 – 08/2020 | Visiting PhD student at the University of Southern Denmark   |
| 03/2018 – 08/2018                      | Intern Financial Planning at Bentley Motors Ltd. in Crewe, UK.   |
| 03/2017 – 12/2017                      | Student Consultant for the Commerzbank Trade Innovation Project, Consileon AG  |
| 11/2016 – 03/2017                      | Intern Group Treasury Subsidiary Finance, Volkswagen AG  |
| 03/2016 – 05/2016                      | Intern Business Management Corporate & Advisory, Deutsche Bank AG  |
| 07/2014 – 01/2015                      | Intern Product & Coverage Solutions, Deutsche Bank AG  |
| 11/2014 – 09/2016                      | Student Research Assistant Personal Finance at the chair for Personal Finance, Goethe University Frankfurt   |

EDUCATION

---

- 10/2018 – 02/2021     Doctoral studies in Finance, Goethe University in Frankfurt
Thesis title “Essays in Empirical Household Financial Decision Making” (summa cum laude), PhD supervisor: Prof. Dr. Andreas Hackethal
- 04/2017 – 09/2018     Master of Science in Management, Johannes Gutenberg University
(grade 1.4)
- 10/2013 – 04/2017     Bachelor of Science in Finance & Accounting, Goethe University
(grade 1.7)

TEACHING EXPERIENCE AND SUPERVISION

---

“Corporate FinTech” (Master, 10 ECTS)

“Finance” (Bachelor, 10 ECTS)

“Finance II” (Bachelor) teaching assistant: development and teaching of exercise classes, course organization including interactions with students on the e-learning platform and exam development and creation.

“Seminar on personal finance”: development of seminar topics and supervision of seminar papers.

Supervision of bachelor and master theses

SCHOLARSHIPS, AWARDS, AND PRIZES

---

I received a Danish Finance Institute research scholarship (Junior level 2) with 200,000 DKK per year (corresponding to approximately 27,000 Euros) for a period of 6 years.

I received a Danish Finance Institute publication scholarship of 216,506 DKK (corresponding to 29,000 Euros) for my paper “Ambiguity about volatility and investor behavior”.

I received a competitive research grant of the Think Forward Initiative, sponsored by CEPR and partners from the industry, on the project: “How do flat-fees for mutual funds affect retail investor portfolios?” (funding volume: 10,000 Euros).

American Finance Association (AFA) 2020 Travel Grant.

OTHER ACTIVITIES BEYOND PUBLICATIONS AND CONFERENCES

---

- 2021            Research study with Trade Republic to investigate the impact of payment-for-order-flow on private investors
- 08/2020        Participation at Book a Scientist (one-on-one speed dating between scientists and 11/2020        the public) in August 2020 and November 2020.
- 2019            Organization of the EFL Spring Conference on “Artificial Intelligence in the Financial Services Industry” (approximately 300 participants).
- 2018            Representation of the Leibniz Institute of Financial Research SAFE at the “Hessentag” (approximately 500,000 visitors) with an information desk regarding the topic financial literacy.