

The Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE – Sustainable Architecture for Finance in Europe – (www.safe-frankfurt.de) promotes high-quality research and independent policy advice on all aspects dealing with the structure and functioning of the financial system. It is committed to contributing to the strengthening of a sustainable and resilient financial architecture that promotes innovation and serves the needs of the economy and its citizens. Researchers from the fields of economics, law, and political science collaborate at SAFE.

The Leibniz Institute SAFE is seeking to fill the position of two

Student Assistants/Student Research Assistants (m/f/d) in the area of Law & Finance
(50 hours/month)

We are looking for student assistants / student research assistants for the SAFE Project “Gauging the impact of related party transactions in Europe“. The persons would be involved in interdisciplinary research (law and finance) in the area of corporate governance and financial regulation. Ideally, candidates have some knowledge in accounting. The project seeks to assess how legal regimes affect the magnitude, frequency and quality of related party transactions. The main task will lie in institutional comparisons between jurisdictions and the quantitative analysis of legal and accounting data, including manual coding.

Your Profile

- University degree in law (state examination or equivalent) from a leading law school
- Excellent performance in the field of studies
- Expertise in corporate law and financial regulation with a particular view to interdisciplinary aspects (law and finance)
- Fluency in German and English
- Ability to work independently and flexibly in a team

We offer

The infrastructure of a modern research center with excellent contacts to the scientific and financial community. You will be working in a very attractive working environment in the House of Finance at Goethe University and with an enthusiastic team of colleagues. The position is for 6 months starting as soon as possible, on average 50 hours per month – the temporal distribution of working hours is negotiable.

Your application: Please submit your application, together with the usual credentials (CV, letter of motivation, transcripts etc.), by mail to Leibniz Institute for Financial Research SAFE, House of Finance, Theodor-W.-Adorno-Platz 3, 60323 Frankfurt am Main, Germany or electronically by email to applications@safe-frankfurt.de by adding APPLICATION Student Assistant / Student Research Assistant, Project 173102 in the subject line of your email.

Deadline for the submission is April 18, 2021.

Should you have any questions please contact Prof. Dr. Tobias Tröger, via email: troeger@safe-frankfurt.de.